

Heaven

Heaven is now a happier place.
For a reason we cannot understand,
God decided it was time for his soul
to keep company with those in heaven –
So many more souls in heaven than on earth.

Remembering each hour spent with him,
full of warmth and fun. No problem
could ever exist in the same room with him,
and ugly thoughts became impossible –
Washed away by his laughter.

Though we miss the laughter, and eyes
full of glitter – now a compliment to the stars;
we can be happy for so many souls, now lucky enough to spend time with him. Truly,
Heaven is now a happier place.
