

My Shadow

My shadow keeps me company
when I go for walks alone.
Sometimes we discuss important things
and never disagree.
So comforting to find my shadow
walking beside me,
or leading as I follow.
Almost never alone.
But where does my shadow go
when I walk at noon?
To visit other shadows?
Never alone for long.
A few minutes after noon,
my shadow appears behind me,
trying to catch up – to tell me a secret.
